HISTORIES UNTOLD

Saturday, April 8th, 2000
from 2pm to 4pm

at

The Cleveland Museum of Natural History Murch Auditorium

1 Wade Oval Drive, University Circle, Cleveland, Ohio

Subsequent to the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, over 110,000 Japanese-Americans living in the West Coast were interned from one to four years without due process of law in the United States. Many of these Americans are now living in Cleveland. Come and listen to the stories of JACL Speakers Bureau Chairman Ed Ezaki and other internees. In addition, be the first to attend the premiere of An American History: Resettlement of Japanese Americans in Greater Cleveland, a 60-minute video documentary with interviews hosted by Steve Yano, recounting stories of Harry Taketa, Jay, Kay, and Mitzie Akiba, Sadie Yamane, Masumi Hayashi, and Gary Yano.

FREE ADMISSION TO THE MUSEUM - Paid secure parking available

Organized by the JACL Coalition, Speakers Bureau and the Educational Committees as part of Day of Remembrance Program.

From the East or West: Interstate 90 and Rt. 2 (Shoreway); exit off Shoreway at Martin Luther King, Jr., Drive (MLK) and University Circle Area exit. Travel south on MLK to the second stop light at East 105th St. (approximately two miles). At this intersection you are directly behind The Cleveland Museum of Natural History property. Continue through the intersection on MLK. Immediately on the left you will pass the Museum's loading dock entrance and then a statue of Slovakian General Milan R. Štefánik located at the entrance to Jephtha Drive. Turn left onto Jephtha Drive, just beyond the statue, and drive up to the top of the hill. At the stop sign, turn left. The Museum parking lot is on your left.

From the South: North on Interstate 71 or 77 to Interstate 90 East (Shoreway). Exit at Martin Luther King, Jr., Drive and proceed as above.

From the Southeast: Interstate 480 West, to Interstate 77 North, to Interstate 90 East (Shoreway). Exit at Martin Luther King, Jr., Drive and proceed as above. Or: Interstate 271 North to Interstate 90 West (Shoreway). Exit at Martin Luther King, Jr., Drive and proceed as above. Or: Interstate 271 North to Cedar Road exit; west on Cedar Road (right turn). Proceed on Cedar Road all the way down Cedar Hill (6 lanes), under the Rapid Transit overpass. Turn right at the first traffic light (East Boulevard/Martin Luther King, Jr., Drive). Turn right again at Euclid Avenue (second light) and keep to the inside lane for an immediate left turn onto East Boulevard, in front of Severence Hall. From East Boulevard, turn left at the first street, Wade Oval Drive, just past the Cleveland Museum of Art near the Cleveland Botanical Garden parking area. Pass the Museum of Art entrance, located to your left, and around the Oval to The Cleveland Museum of Natural History.
